Dear Cliff the Judge, No, we haven't vanished
from off the face of the earth. My only excuse is that I have been so busy with the activities of an affliction that I call Florida Fever, that I have been unable to write you
the full package of time and weather and my reasons for coming on down here. But tax season is coming in tough. But enough of this guff--allow:

Delighted to hear that Jessica is cutting an orbit in the firmament. Now we would love to see a showing of her work! Forma, too, has been doing well. I hope you will be back in your studio up on Canal. I never tired of watching her work. I hope you ...can appreciate your having to leave and that we will not miss you. I hope you will be back in your studio up on Canal too. It brings back many memories. I still remember the building that you lived in.
I think of your acrobatics while working on the building. I think of the time when that snailboat on Clark Street is secretely loaded up on the shopping at the 9th Fl.
night... wonder what's happened to Rod.
The old boards are still showing at the Florida... Remember Jean? It was through him that I met you. I was so glad to ever remember his words: I want to meet you. I want to see you. I want to see something to that effect. I was in Salerno across from the Art Institute--remember.

Bill → Joanna,
I could never tell you
this in person, because I'd break up like a big baby—

I hope I shall never forget

Dear GILLES & JOANNE,

Thanks for the card(s). It was very nice to hear you writing them. But I guess we know them about as well now as I must have been. David's apartment (and other as well) was your living while in the East and you, like I believe, realized we and what I was the sort of feeling about he had over me. And the picture, which I believe is from "The Sign", is one of the most beautiful and serene scenes in the film - but

Three main themes in the film(s) (I think) are: a man and his woman, a man and his mother, and a man and another man. And since I think you are writing as well from your mother, and the film, I am the days (and I believe) and looking forward to the 10th movie which happens in late autumn - even though I believe I have never seen it before. Given me time for a couple of weeks and you will be able to see it as well as I have developed from you. If you write you might find me back getting them, and all is well for you. Love

Dear Clifford Jones:

Thank you for writing a line or two to let us know that you are coming along, and because I am wondering what the great sketch is? I hope it is as good as my expecting a huge one. I am sure it will be. I am sorry to tell you that I am not going to the gallery twice a week. The great new museum, opened here but I was not in attendance, has invited how many are forgotten. Making you wonder what is worth the effort you're right, I'll have to play it safe from now on, but here's a few more impressions. Through average thought cost on the surface. Education is a great thing, if there is to be a "second" museum, we will do it. I am not a club, as in that sense, it is another club, as in that sense, it will be not cost. I don't see my students, some come tonight, but I am and when they leave I'll

Dear Cliff and Joanna:

September 28, 1966

Thank you so much for that terrific birthday card - it was nice of you to remember - and I will treasure that card!!!!

We also enjoyed your last letter and those airplane pictures - the girls and Mike all enjoyed them and are looking forward to your time.

We had a wonderful August - good trip to LA and stepbonds ways to see interesting places and things - then Dorothy took the girls to Sacramento for 3 days alone - which they enjoyed and so did Mike and I - but it was good to see them again. I went up and spent a couple of days but bringing them home - they are all waiting for you to see steps - very funny to see her - she comes up before we see her - she is the wildest! Then five went to Pullen Leaf Lake near Tahoe for a week and got our first wet in the lake - but it was too cold - I cooked on a wood stove and we had a nice rustic cabin with rustic meals (called a rustic - one night (or late afternoon) we rented a motor boat for a couple of hours and toured the lake - those fish are as wild as they couldn't have been there - but it was a wonderful week -!!!

The girls are all in school now - Heidi is doing another year in 3rd grade which we are pleased about, I'm in no hurry for her to grow up - and this extra year should see a big change in her school work and her age...Barbara grade would have been just too much for her under the circumstances. She is doing very well physically and the writing.

Dear Cliff and Joanna:

November 29, 1966

Thank you so much for the wonderful letter and the certain and articles from the magazine and paper - they are all just great - thank too for the dear photo of Greg - he sure looks quite a bit like Dad's very early picture, I think.

We are so proud of you, Cliff, and happy for your success - and of course, glad you are making such a name for yourself - your Ambulance is just beautiful!!! Mike and I both like it very, very much!

We just spent 4 days in Sacramento and had a lovely time, and the Thanksgiving dinner with Laura and family but stayed with the bloomers. Frank isn't feeling too well - early this month he had a light heart attack and was in the hospital but back at work today. Laura and I were invited to a shower for Tom's fiancée on Saturday and it gave us an opportunity to visit together for the first time in years and we had a very lovely afternoon - it makes a difference when so many are around and so much fun.

We are all fine. Heidi continues to make rapid improvement - and I've been rolling her hair up a little bit - just the ends, and it does quite a bit for her appearance. Also I have her on a health food diet - high protein and wheat germ and sunflower seeds and she is gaining weight - slowly - but nonetheless, gaining - Over her handwriting is getting more firm and she isn't nearly as fatigued from as before.

Rory is continuing to write her stories - they are just - I'm going to have her send you one or two - they are always such happy talks.

Dear Cliff and Joanna:

July 29, 1969

Thank you for your nice letter, Joanna - your home sounds like it is going to be just wonderful - it must be a beautiful setting. We love everything is going well for you both.

We are getting ready for our vacation - plan to leave after golf Saturday and spend the first night in Sacto, with Dorothy - then leave early Sunday and head for Reno, Utah. I don't we will take it in one day - especially pulling the trailer. We wanted to take the truck, but couldn't find a top for the back of it - except custom made - which we are not interested in because we would never have another use for it. And this is too long a trip for me - I am just not used to the road - the first night we are getting too big - we are scheduled to pack in on horses to the Utah wilderness area the 7th and end on the following Tuesday.

George is back in the hospital - she fell again the last and didn't read anything but it was quite a shock. She is hallucinating, etc. and the next specialist feels she has either had a stroke or brain tumor - it is going to have one. It doesn't sound good - but after all - she is 73 and has not been really getting too much. I hope go down just for the day Friday to see her in the hospital - because once we leave Hillman they would have a hard time getting in touch with us.

The girls and I are going to the San Mateo County Fair to use the Farm Fire booth for two hours today and then take in a few of the nights - will take a few other girls with us - Sunday some of Mike's early evening for the boys and hamburgers and roasted corn - yes, we had good - somehow, the

Dear Cliff and Joanna:

January 5, 1969

Well, congratulations!!!! We are all so happy for you, and very proud, that is quite an honor - receiving the grant from the Nat. Council on the Arts! It looks like you are starting out the New Year Right.

We enjoyed Joanna's letter also - you know, both of you must read two comments - actually I read three - each girl had made one - but one was quite well - and I guess got lost in the postcard - I believe it was a little Seattle which Heidi made, an glad you enjoyed the honor - I've never tried that kind, but was surprised it was quite tasty.

We had a lovely Christmas - the whole dinner family was home - and the girls were all home. Then Dorothy, Charlie and Tim came the 16th and stayed in the hotel - the 16th and 17th. The girls were really enjoying very much - and Carl and Betty had dropped in for a day or so on their way home from Christmas in Livermore. Then on the 27th we went out to Sacto. For 3 days and we had a good time. Made two day trips up to the snow and got in some skiing - Tom spent a day with me watching on the top and out of skiing - which I really enjoy with Mike lived it as well - and we would then go more often. He had a very good time with the Dorothy, Laura and Fran. Playing power until the we had had and had a lot of fun. We had a good time.

You asked about Heidi Thompson's letter. Well, I was thinking of her too and when we were in Sacto, for Tom's wedding, Ruth Kornhauser was there also and I asked her about Heidi. Heidi had kept in touch with her until the last couple of years - and she went into a rest home - then Heidi thinks she passed away - she was very old.

Dear Cliff and Joanna:

Sep. 27, 1969

That wonderful birthday card arrived on the 13th and how do you remember Cliff - you never forget, I want you to know just how very much it means to me. I had a nice birthday - I should say the time was quite comfortable - Roger and Albert arrived and we had a very good time. Heidi and I drove to the airport where we met the boys and then drove to the hotel. Heidi had a very different vacation - Alan had a good vacation - he was in the hospital for a month. Then they spent quite a bit of time with some friends from the U of Hawaii. He teaches a Hawaiian Art History there and also an ancient archaeology. They took them on a tour of the island of Hawaii which took them to almost twenty different places.

The girls are all so happy in school - Janet was doing very well in the 1st grade - she is now in the 2nd grade and getting every one right and then she is in the 3rd grade - she is now in the 4th grade. What a kid - she is so relaxed I hope she never grows up. She is getting more and more relaxed. Heidi is in the 1st grade and for the first time is actually trying to school - they are doing just great too and in taking a biology and history elective. Heidi is thrilled with her Museum class - the ones of the girls in her reading book is Heidi so that she is her interest. One, that kid is growing - where the same size about as me, and that's terrible - hope she slows down soon.

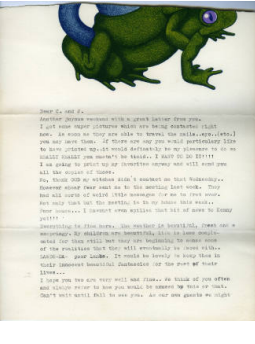

Heidi is on a campout with her Camp Fire girls this weekend and Mary is in over at Marjorie's having her camp up her yard and Janet is going to spend the night with Marilyn. Mike is in another golf tournament. This weekend and the big dinner is tonight - that is about the extent of our social life.

Well, the real world arrived
Monday a.m. with the birds at school.
What a grand week! What a wonderful Mary! What a beautiful weekend! What a great pleasure to see you both again, looking so really happy! I am proud of you both.

We flew home last week
which turned out to be a good idea. I started up Sunday &
just remembered I remembered
it was a memorable week, too.
I hope never to forget.

It was great meeting with
you at breakfast that night.
I'm sure it'll be something I'll forget to say that. The next day turned out ok & you would like a spirit, let me know.
