MIKE NEVELSON, PRESIDENT

Dear Jeanne + Cliff,
We are here, wealthy conquerors of the Terrible Income Tax Typhoon Season, looking at that bottle of Beautiful Special Old Rescue whisky and figuring we'll dig into it as soon as we get these numbers all straight. Then we are off to Canada today to collect an old debt from a debtor. Can you imagine! The bottle arrived safely even if the Postal Service managed to crush the steel chocolate there!
Hope to see you both soon again.
Best Wishes
Cliff, Jo (+ Maximus)

Dear Cliff & Joanne,

Just a short note to let you know that we are waiting for the title company to furnish us with a written description of the 14 acre parcel. As we soon as I receive this, I will finish the deed and send it to you.

I hope you are enjoying the lovely spring weather wherever it appears.

Sincerely,

Box 39
Brookfield Center, Conn. 06805

Dear Cliff and Joanne-

I am awfully sorry to have to admit that the month of July got away from me but I have not yet completed notice on your deed. The big reason is this, on top of the usual pressing matters and emergencies, I have been busy moving my office from 1 Sullivan Street, Stamford to my house in Sullivan Street. Starting Monday, I will be living on the second floor and the office will be on the first floor, which Cliff saw and admired so much four years ago. Unfortunately, Cliff, I could not guarantee the pain you admired so much (although the basement still has the same quality).

After the move, I will go on a two-week trip with my son through the South, returning about August 15. I will get to the deed as soon as I can thereafter. Please bear with me.

Sincerely,

Jarrett Ordonez

Dear Joanna & Cliff

We send you a very Merry Christmas and a great happy New Year.

There we both of you? We have not heard from you for so long but we often talk and wonder if you are still in Chicago and how you are coming along. We sure would look to see you. We are just only a little older but as everyone else, we can't complain. Hope we hear from you soon.

Have a wonderful Holiday

Love
Louise & Horace Colby

Dear Cliff & Joanne,

Yes, believe it or not, we are very much alive— battered but kicking! We may be reticent in keeping in touch, but $741 in Hawaii if we're far (out of range) still, I wouldn't blame you saying to hell with these jokers— after that unapologetic woman in Chicago. I think that because you are so much with us (in spirit if not in flesh)— your paintings on the walls (are those paintings here ourselves), the articles & pictures in "Time" (we save them all)— we never knew our self-created dilutions as far as you're concerned. Sure— how to bring you up to date. There's so much to tell.

Chronologically, the vagaries of our attempts at self-fulfillment & just plain self-survival follow, as I remember, when we last saw you we were in between the closing of Jerard's Pub on Riverside & the re-opening on Lincoln Ave. Then was in Jan. '69, one evening of [illegible] the Contemporary. It was bitterly cold & we lay that we would very like some sociable evening our somewhat way through the early 60s. Well, the job on Lincoln was signed in Feb., a week off like a recent while we were still counting to ten. It was so successful that within six months we bought it from. 130 yr. old mansion in Delmar, Ill. (by 17,000 plus 7,000 dollars to [illegible] loanlines to say, not all cash— the bank held a mortgage of 20,000, & we owed for most of the savings). You would have really appreciated that house, Cliff, it was solid as the day it was built. Constructed of brick that didn't answer a flame through the 8 renters, & thirteen that didn't say, an ageless marvel of the kind of wood-

Dear Cliff, Joanna,

Yep! Those interpretations were a sheer delight, Doris & I jigged & shorticed like a couple of excitable mice! By worse year the ridiculed of your solos & imagery with unashamed pride... he read me out of things down here... how we'd have liked to watch both your shovel dogs they were success. Sad he all the ways important to you.

Our trial I as was a bridge-tender for the Florida dept. of transportation. From time to time in the past, I would quite fully give utterance to a yearning to be a lighthouse-keeper. Well, one day we were passing over the bridge of Lions to St. Augustine & Doris says, "Hey, that's the job for you, a bridge-tender". "Yeah", I says, "but I bet it's a pointless job". To which, Doris replies with all the fervor of an optimist-fatalist, "Well, that here we get to here, why dont we check it out". So did & I was— with signs & under a solicitude & time to read & write. We simply came to the conclusion that time was NOW, was precious & to be used deeply... for the things we loved.

We have two group shows coming up, so I am finishing Doris' paintings & ours, one of mine. Doubtless to say, I am not in her class, but I'm not ashamed of my amateurish either.

How fast & how much the kids are growing! Alison, as eleven is so tall as I am. She sings in the Flagler church choir (she loves to sing— they give occasional renewals of Bach, etc.)

Dear Cliff & Joanna:

A belated reply to your letter of May 1. Says, weeks, months melt away! Rather pleasantly, I admit, since I've quit construction for bridge tending. We are fond of St. Augustine— the climate & surroundings are beguiling— but— & there's the rub— a certain excitement seems to be missing. Probably just me being perverse, but I sure would use a little old-fashioned give & take with some kindred souls. God, it would be great to see you folks. We have a three room guesthouse apartment available for guests until Sept.

You mentioned trying to visualize our paintings— my talent (?) is pretty pedestrian, but, Doris has real talent, I think. She should work at it more than she does, but I am wary of putting any pressure on her, as she is definitely a person with her own viable ways of attaining what she wants.

Cliff, as for your fear concerning your illustrations, bite your tongue, man! They have an honored place in our small hoard of real treasure!

Dear Joanna:

WE HAVEN'T EVEN MET, BUT I WANTED TO WRITE TO YOU BECAUSE I WANTED TO TELL YOU HOW MUCH I APPRECIATED THIS BOOK "LETTERS FROM H.C. WESTERMANN." IT BROUGHT BACK SO MANY POSITIVE MEMORIES FROM YEARS PAST.

I WAS A GRADUATE STUDENT AT THE SAN FRANCISCO ART INSTITUTE WHEN CLIFF WAS THE VISITING ARTIST IN RESIDENCE.

CLIFF WAS KIND ENOUGH TO TAKE THE TIME TO LOOK AT MY WORK ONE AFTERNOON. MEETING HIM WAS ONE OF THE HI LITES OF MY ART EDUCATION. THE MEMORY THAT I RECALL MOST VIVIDLY CAME AT THE END OF MY SHORT VISIT WITH HIM.

Dear Mrs. Westermann,

I am sorry to hear that Mr. Westermann had [illegible] in 1988. I would have loved a letter from him at that time of letting come in at Kent's in the Valley. It's a sad time, very powerful emotions. The letters and sketches he drew for the architectural he work meant [illegible].

Enclosed the last sketch, and a few of the [illegible] drawings we display over the [illegible] exhibition. I feel these are [illegible] you and a print to the family. Thank you for your letter.

sincerely,
Carl Bond

THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS LAWRENCE, KANSAS 66045

Ms. Joanna Beall

Brookfield Center, Connecticut 06805

Dear Joanna Beall:

Very recently Mr. Richard Hollander and Mrs. Joan Lighton of Kansas City have donated to the Spencer Museum a number of artworks by your late husband, H.C. Westermann. This gift includes quite a number of artworks, letters, and ephemera which will be of great interest to scholars studying Westermann and your husband. I am enclosing for you photographs of four of these drawings.

I wanted to write to you to let you know where these works will be from now on, and to assure you of our pleasure and delight in receiving them. We are indeed grateful to Richard Hollander and to Joan Lighton for this marvelous gift, and I know these works will be of special interest to many of our visitors and students. I myself have long been an admirer of Westermann's art, and it is with very great pleasure that we are now able to represent him in our collection. I intend to display these drawings in the near future, and I look forward to showing them to the students and faculty to campus. I know they will share my enthusiasm for it, and that these pieces will be of lasting interest. There are also many artists in Lawrence who have long admired and loved Westermann's art, and I know they, too, will be overjoyed that this material can now be seen.

The other pieces in the collection have not yet been photographed, but they will be photographed in the near future, and I will send you copies. I am sure you are well aware of the enormous impact which Westermann made through his art, even on those who were not privileged to know him personally. It is especially pleasant, then, to have in our collection a few pieces which are so personal in character, the highly personal nature of his accomplishments. The collection as a whole is a very moving one, and a tribute to his personal commitment. It is indeed a valuable resource for us, and one which I am extremely grateful to have.

Sincerely yours,
Elizabeth Broun
Acting Director, and
Curator of Prints and Drawings

Dear Mr. Westermann

My students and I were very sad to hear about your husband's death. In the last three years we have had [illegible] Salt Lake. We will be leaving the area this year. We have a Tremendous appreciation for any attitudes that we [illegible] have been [illegible]. His work, art, and humor will live on with us.

Please add yourself to [illegible] Remembrance Book & find with the [illegible] flowers, or cheer. It took [illegible] strength and [illegible]. Through this time of loss [illegible]

Do you happen to [illegible] if it is [illegible] and white 8"x10" of your husband? If so, could be a [illegible] to the memorial exhibit and record the [illegible]. Should a gathering have one?

But I wished [illegible] added in the Record

Dear mrs. Westermann,

I'm very happy that I got a response to the letter I sent Germany. I wasn't expecting one at all. Who would believe me. I received a letter from a lady who has been written about in Europe! I want to thank you for answering my questions, and also for the book – I'm reading everyeith. I sat down and read it cover to cover so soon as I got it.

I'm sorry (and a little embarrassed) that I didn't realize Mr. Westermann had died. I guess it didn't occur to me, even after I noticed that the art at the museum wasn't new from 1981.

Again, I want to thank you for the book, and for taking the time to answer my letter. (Both of which I am genuinely thrilled about).

That was very nice of you.

A newfound Westermann fan,
Kim Prewitt

Dear Joanna,

I have been thinking of you and wondering how you are. I hope you are recovered from the Dymaxion [illegible] of Bates Head Allergy and I hope you are recovered from the hospital treatment. It was kind of a quiet visit with Cliff to us almost seeing Cliff-and-Joanna. Your house is just beautiful, a work of art and love. We were somewhat ruled as we had had a long drive from St. Paul's Bluff [illegible]. They are hurrying to get sand and water to the house before the really cold weather sets in as they are likely in a "race" in the [illegible] it is really rugged. The town itself is a huge downside and they have partitioned off this little section with a water and a lot, but it is really rugged. Last week they said they shoveled into the Holiday Buffet a night, and First Ready took a bath and then Jack took a bath and then Ready took a shower and then Jack took a shower and by between they just took turns sitting in the bathroom because it was much heavy. The trouble was that they had had to [illegible] them they were already "soft" from the many [illegible]. Anyway, they have a lovely piece of land which they bought in partnership with Rosalie and Irving Forman, old friends of theirs from Chicago. This is a tricky arrangement, and I hope it works out, though the problems are already forming. The Formans were supposed to build a house a distance off from the Rocks, but they have already changed their minds and plan to re-do the barn which runs them right in this and Ready's backyard. But the barn is a total disaster. Jack and Rosie have what was left of the old farmhouse for their place. It will have living area on the first floor and top floor is all studio. You come into the kitchen which has a brick free-standing fireplace. Behind this is the livingroom with over the other side of the fireplace. Then there is a small master bedroom and a utility room for washing machines etc etc. Then is about all; it is quite simple. Upstairs is the Rosalie and under the eaves of the sloping roof are two pull-away beds for guests. But it is a nice studio and Jack

Dear Joanna,

Thank you for your letter of March 17th. I was so pleased to hear from you and to learn that Cliff's illness and hope that rest and calm is the best thing for recuperation.

I would like to clarify my own first letter which simply reiterates our support and enthusiasm for Cliff's work and wished for the umpteenth time our interest in participating with Allan Frumkin and Jim Corcoran on an exhibition here at a later date.

I would appreciate it if Cliff understood this, as I don't want to put pressure on him to produce anything his work for a long time. Yes, I don't want him to feel uncomfortable, or pressured.

Cliff might also be interested to know that at the time of the San Francisco exhibition took years, we plan to have an exhibition of the work and Miranda be the artist's private collections. Not a very big deal, but lots of fun for all.

Good luck and hopes that Cliff's health will improve rapidly.

Very best,

Diane

Joanna Beall

Dear Joanna Beall:

H.C. Westermann's life and work will continue to exert a great pull on art students for years and years. I doubt if he ever fully realized the influence he had on the younger generation of artists in Chicago: largely among (perhaps his preferred) here and exotic.

To you, his wife, we extend, on behalf of all our students and faculty, our utmost regret and sorrow at his death. May you be comforted and bolstered during this time of grief.

Sincerely,

Roger Brown
Chairman

Dear Joanna,

Nancy + I were very saddened to hear of Cliff's death.

Cliff made a strong + powerful mark on Chicago art, American art, world art, + in a special + personal way of his own. That's really something. Although he should have lived to make much more! there is a bitter sense of tragedy + waste in what he was able to do.

But that's only a special kind of confrontation — I can't substitute for your loss. Our deepest

Dear Joanna,

You suggest how we — I, as a painter, first met Cliff in Chicago in the mid 50's when I was a student and we worked together on Monotype stones. I was deeply saddened by the news of Cliff's death.

I had just seen his show at Fonseca — it is so clean and meaningful. I have followed his work with fascination and admiration since we met. I admired his touch, his craft. He was truly original, and the singularity of his work deeply affected me. Over the years some of his images, characters and creations came to occupy a special place in my mind.

We shall miss him and remember him.

I wish to express my most sincere sympathy to you,

Josephine Gomperts

Dear Joanna,

I was shocked and sadden by the news that wonderful Cliff was dead. I wish that it had be given that to be known to Brookfield Center with you making the arts, so you can imagining anything the loss of [illegible] to [illegible] a work would grow without by thinking of you and Cliff. I often know Cliff was gone until Friday when I went to see his show, and there was HOLIDAYS, on the walls, strange — [illegible] I visited at this beautiful exhibition and remembers. I don't know what else to say except that Cliff will [illegible] and we [illegible] there, I hope you are doing alright, and if I can be of any help at this or any other time please tell me.

My Warmest Regards and Good Wishes

Dear Joanna;

Martha phoned George who phoned me about Cliff.

I am so sorry. What is there to say at a time like this?

One thing I know - you will feel the love of family and friends pouring in to comfort and uphold you.

Cliff was such a dedicated artist, he leaves an honored name and many memories of his being on earth.

May God's love encircle you and yours.

Lovingly,

Dear Ms Beall,

Hello. I hope this letter finds you well. Recently my wife Diana, and I were visiting her parents in Los Angeles and her father, Dick Donaldson, starting telling us these fond memories of him and Cliff. It seems that when they were in high school Cliff was given the nickname "Yogi." Somehow this nickname came from a popular character actor then by the name of J. Carroll Nash and a role he played in a particular film. Anyway Dick certainly loved these times they had.

Mr. Joanna Beall

Dear Ms. Beall:

You may know that I discussed with your husband just before his death his participation in our exhibition from Chicago. He said he was flattered and delighted to be included. With his blessings I proceeded to assemble a wonderful group of works with which to represent his special contribution. Bill Copley, Billy Copley, the Surpeans, and Alan Franklin were immensely helpful in this effort.

I have enclosed two copies of our exhibition catalogue. I hope that you will have an opportunity to see the exhibition. It would be my pleasure to show you through it.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey Hoffeld

Joanna -
There's a real hole in the world with Cliff gone. His indominatable presence has a lot to do with keeping the meaning of art alive and he was rightly looked upon with respect and reverence. It's a heavy blow to artists - People are very grieved. I am.

Dear Joanna,

It has taken me all week to find the words to express my sadness at Cliff's death. And, also the kind of consolation to you that could be of some help. And now they seem to be the same words. In the deep sadness I feel, I do feel so fortunate to have been a part of the lovely celebration in New York. He has such a great gift - so much in touch with himself and so sensitive to others, that it became very part of him very quickly.

I do hope that your comfort will be in the life you had with Cliff and the wonderful

Joanna:

11-6-81

It was a shock when I read of Cliff's passing in the paper last Thursday. Although I have not seen the two of you for sometime, I have always had a great warmth for all of your family and the wonderful days I spent working with your father.

In addition to the tremendous awe and respect I held for Cliff's talent, I also had tremendous respect for the individual. I envied him for his ability to "say it like it is"... Direct and to the point!

He was a very special person!

Please take care of yourself.

Dear Joanna:

11/12/81

I am very sad to get the news of Cliff's death. It was Jim Butler who told me he read it in the N.Y. Times. It was through Jim and his wife of the time that Cliff and I met.

I have many wonderful letters and memories of Cliff. He was a source of inspiration and strength for me. He refered to me as "Kid" for so long that I felt that way toward him. I was his Kid and now he's gone. His memory will live on.

Joanna your life and carring has great meaning to me.

Your friend. Peter Zeltner
