

Long-necked Spouted Ewer

Date

circa 2000 B.C.E. - 1 B.C.E.

Medium

Unglazed earthenware

Description

Vessel with rounded body and long, beak-like spout. Buff orange /brown coloration. Burnished (?) surface. Body intact except for small hole near base. Spout reconstructed from two fragments; one small plaster mend. Some white patination of surface.

Dimensions

6 3/4 x 8 in. (17.2 x 20.3 cm) Diameter of base: 4 in. (10.2 cm) ; Diameter of mouth: 4-5/8 in. (11.8 cm)