

Small Dish

Date	12th - 13th century
Primary Maker	Unknown Artist
Medium	Stoneware with greenish-gray (celadon) glaze and white clay inlaid (sanggam) decoration
Description	Small dish of gray stoneware has sloping sides and slightly everted rim. Thick glaze is warm greenish-gray and finely crackled. An accidentally unglazed patch on the outside has fired orange. Grit adheres to the partly unglazed foot-ring and glazed base. Inlaid decoration of off-white slip consists of chrysanthemum-like flowers inside two concentric rings. On the exterior are three small flowers.
Dimensions	Height: 1-5/16 in. (3.3 cm) Diameter of rim: 4-3/8 in. (11.1 cm)