

Octagonal Dessert Plate in the Gothic Revival Manner

Date

circa 1849

Primary Maker

Augustus Welby Northmore Pugin

Medium

Glazed stoneware with molded relief and underglaze painted and overglaze gilded decoration

Description

One of six octagonal, lobed prototype plates of the same design never commercially produced

Dimensions

Overall (max. diameter): 9 1/4 in. (23.5 cm)