

Joseon painting: Travelers among Streams and Mountains ,

Date

16th century

Primary Maker

Unknown Artist

Medium

Hanging scroll, brush and ink on silk

Description

Hanging scroll painting of brushed ink on silk suggestive of a Northern Song (960-1127) style mountain landscape with a donkey-riding scholar and attendant. A paper slip inside the painting's box reads: , (Joseon painting: Travelers among Streams and Mountains), and is impressed with a seal reading meaning from the 'collection of the Hongan-ji Temple (This may refer to the Hongan-ji/Hongwanji Temple or temples, of which there are several, of the Jodo Shinshu School () of Japanese Buddhism. There is a faint square red seal impression on the upper right portion of the painting surface.

Dimensions

Panel: 59 1/2 x 33 1/8 in. (151.1 x 84.1 cm) Mounting: 86 1/4 x 36 1/8 in. (219.1 x 91.8 cm)