Dearest Sweet-Heart,

It was wonderful to hear you on the phone; even if my mother was rustling around in the background. ~~I'm glad~~ ^{I'm glad} you like Tamarind, and glad too they have paid you and not pulled any St. Louis stunts on you. I have a real vicarious pleasure in thinking of how much you will enjoy it. Please tell me all the gossip in letters as I know you won't remember it when you come home. I looked at that Insurance policy again - it was from United in Washington but since it said "Premium Due - Nil" I guess it must be just a receipt.

Willie got into another fight, so I'm dreading it will be another infection.

I went to The Bread place today and nearly freaked-out seeing 50 on R. 24, - crept along R. 6.
