

A collage of various French Republic assignat banknotes and a central illustration. The banknotes are from the French Republic and feature different denominations and designs. Visible denominations include 1000, 500, 200, 100, 50, 20, 10, 5, and 1 franc. The notes are scattered and overlapping, showing different colors and patterns. A central illustration depicts a man in historical attire, possibly a soldier or a nobleman, standing and holding a staff or weapon. The background is dark, making the banknotes and the central illustration stand out.
