

Kinsei no onkata (People Born in Metal Signs), Nigatsu nanoka u no koku uke ni iri tori no toshi made shichinen no aida uke ni iru (At the Hour of the Hare on the 7th Day of the 2nd Month Will Enter a Lucky Cycle and Will Be Lucky for Seven Years through the Year of the Chicken): Fukusuke and Fukujo at Enoshima

Date
1866, 12th month

Primary Maker
Hiroshige II

Medium
Color woodblock print

Description
According to yin-yang divination (onmyôdô), luck followed a cycle of seven good years and then five bad years, according to one's year of birth. The ages of people in the lucky category are listed in the central box between the two halves of the title at the upper right.