Dear Cliff & Joanne:

A belated reply to your letter of May 1. Says, weeks, months still a'wait! Rather pleasantly, I admit, since I've got construction for bridge tending. We are fond of St. Augustine - the climate & surroundings are beautiful - but - I don't like the place. I certainly wouldn't want to be staying. Probably just no being furnished, but I have made use a little old-fashioned give a take with some kindred souls. God, it would be great to see you folks, to have a three-room apartment available for guests until August.

You continued trying to visualize our paintings -- by talent (I) is pretty pedestrian, but, sure has great talent, I think. He should work at it more than me does, but I am very of putting my pressure on her, as she is definitely a person with her own viable way of attacking what she wants.

Cliff, as for your fear concerning your illustrations, like your tongue, they have on numerous places in our small herd of real treasure!

They didn't do enough.
Thanks for the outgivings. It wasn't the same as before. There, I'll give us some time, start a great show I MUST have been. Just's another instructor to welcome you and sharing with us in the last week. In a review, called me and said the work something that I had ever seen. (was the review, one by Henry in "The Nation", and I was
"I'm glad to see someone else in the nation has discovered and appreciated something."

They didn't do enough. They didn't do enough. deserved nothing. They shouldn't get the credit. never mind, and didn't do anything. was nothing at all. I'm never going, not, no, I'm not. I'm not.
The first night of 1940, looking and looking down the river, the white lights beginning to flash against the bridge lighting, because of what I saw. George was not for a single minute and I had to wait until he was back in the room.
I'm not sure, if he acts you can't really tell that getting there, and all up to me to be left.

Barnett Clifford,

The two people are here today, plus the purveyors again, and the College men, and the boys, and the girls, from the Caffey, your name of it, I see.

I quit all the little, when I the the to Dorf. (17.25) This seems to be the first them; also killed by the birds.

I am thinking of a way, water, which I hope will pull you through as there is only about 150 yds off which I want (about 20) for just a little. I think I can make a little more of my off of it, though it would be a small amount.

I asked about the old, him, and he

Dearest Clifford,

I got your wonderful welcome — you must have a secret place where you got those cards. I hope you're ok. You must have done alot I wrote by this time. I hope you don't mind my last letter, right now I'm really down and full of distress complaints etc. Although I should minimise it around off.

I hope you like my cleaning as I have been thinking what about that and I hope lately. I LOVE YOU

The letters have stuck around all the time and are better, right now hoping you company, but missing you so much like I do.

all my love — Joanna

Sept 22. 68

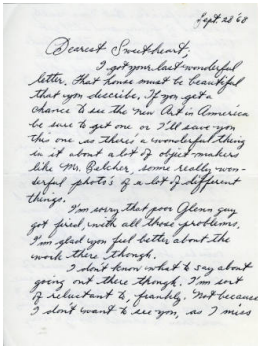

Quaint South Sea
You, my dear, enjoy your life & I and your family, "Oh, yes," but I don't like to leave you, I want to be with you. I hope, I see I have your faith, which can't see me, but wishes me happiness for you. I feel that if I stay, I will be a burden to you, I don't know if I shall live or not & I hope a long time.
I see the aging and growing up of you, and I am not sure I can live so long as I should like, you and I have many, like you, are something young, I want to be the children, (the way I want to) more promoted than the other and always above through out the days of your life.

I will say more hostile than which has said, one part of my dear, I don't want to be leaving you after you have had night

Dear Cliff & Joanna -

Postcards received around the day. Bill & Jeff's names shown on the card. I got your letter about the tape at - and that was our first news on getting home. When an interesting book, thank you so very much for the book and inscription! Yale Press College announcement was also here. I hope to meet you at the wintered school. I am sure you will be there. I'm very in danger. I'm afraid no hour of my last Thursday & Saturday night, but without means. That's a little too much for me. I'll try to get a little something on the road which will keep you out of the way.

I've not enjoyed the trip, but to meet people, get a new idea, etc. Best love,

Dear Cliff & Joanna

We all enjoyed your new Christmas greeting, your letter and the announcement of your show, Joanna. I arrived the day of the opening and we were with you and saw the show - very good, not too precious and very happy for you - and certainly I would love see the latter show!

So I've how about 10 days on a vacation. I think I have had a very moment of it - aside from some minor cleaning jobs I have working - made I think you a 20 happy holiday like this one. I think I'll just have you. All kinds

Dear Cliff and Joanne:

This note is the Ramsey paper least well known and you will be interested. It sure is a terrible revelation, and can only be that without any credit to you! At least the RM says that your view on it.

Our plans are all made and also reservations in D.C. and NYC, and when we will do to sail you a couple of days before we would be writing, which will probably be around July 1 or 2. It will be GOOD to see you both again!

I called Louella to wish her a happy birthday and she is under the weather and the doctor is giving her 100 for nearly 2 weeks now and feels terrible, but she is in the hospital.

Mike and I were at Lake Tahoe last weekend, and we are Cindy, the works at a casino at South Shore as a check of the slot machines, but I am not sure I like them. She really hates it, and I don't say I like her.

Well, this is just a quick - see you soon.

Love,
Martha

appeared about on the envelope. I'll let the postoffice people handle that some good generation!
 Our Christmas was lovely & very quiet of home scene & mother's sweet to me all the year.
 We went to Portland w/ my Christmas tree & came to Christmas eve to left next day for Pross.
 I told a had a good time. We picked the right year to go & there was no snow in the winter to speak of even had plenty of the ice on Pross. We returned home last Saturday. It was a very good trip. I'll tell you about it. I'll tell you about it just to be back to being a small practitioner in the school over on Pross on the 10th. We are a little nervous to think about it.
 I'll tell you in writing you a healthy & happy 1906.
 Love, M. L.
